WoodsAtWork Exhibition 2010

The annual WoodsAtWork Exhibition is being held from Friday 19th – Sunday 26th November in Dublin.

The exhibition came into being when six of the ten children of Tony and May Woods of Sandyford decided to show the fruits of their artistic labours in woodturning, painting, textiles, furniture and cabinet making in one of their homes on an annual basis. As demand grew from a public keen to purchase these original craftworks they decided to bring the exhibition to an external venue, which will be the perfectly chosen Centre for Creative Practices this year. All of the Woods clan credit the encouragement of their parents who worked with wood and allowed them access to the studio and tools from an early age with their lifelong passion for craft.

The Centre for Creative Practices, 15 Pembroke Street Lower, Dublin 2. (Note Friday 19th is the opening reception and is invite only).
